FirstCash Announces Pricing Of $300,000,000 Senior Notes Due 2024

Fort Worth, Texas (May 18, 2017) -- FirstCash, Inc. (NYSE: FCFS) (the "Company") announced today the pricing of $300,000,000 in aggregate principal amount of senior notes due 2024 (the "Notes"). The Notes will pay interest semi-annually at a rate of 5.375% per annum payable on June 1 and December 1 of each year beginning on December 1, 2017. The Notes will be unsecured senior obligations of the Company. The offering of the Notes is expected to close on May 30, 2017, subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions.

The Company intends to use the net proceeds from the offering to repurchase, pursuant to the Company's previously announced tender offer for, or otherwise redeem, its outstanding 6.75% senior notes due 2021, to repurchase shares of its common stock, to pay related fees and expenses and for other general corporate purposes.

The Notes are being offered in a private placement, solely to persons reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers in reliance on the exemption from registration provided by Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or outside the United States to persons other than "U.S. persons" in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. The Notes have not been registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements.

This notice does not constitute an offer to sell the Notes, nor a solicitation for an offer to purchase the Notes, in any jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation would be unlawful.

Forward-Looking Information

This release contains forward-looking statements, including statements about the Notes offering and the intended use of the net proceeds thereof. Forward-looking statements, as that term is defined in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, can be identified by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "believes," "projects," "expects," "may," "estimates," "should," "plans," "targets," "intends," "could," "would," "anticipates," "potential," "confident," "optimistic," or the negative thereof, or other variations thereon, or comparable terminology, or by discussions of strategy, objectives, estimates, guidance, expectations and future plans. Forward-looking statements can also be identified by the fact these statements do not relate strictly to historical or current matters. Rather, forward-looking statements relate to anticipated or expected events, activities, trends or results. Because forward-looking statements relate to matters that have not yet occurred, these statements are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties.

These forward-looking statements are made to provide the public with management's current expectations with regard to the Notes offering and the intended use of the net proceeds thereof. Although the Company believes the expectations reflected in forward-looking statements are reasonable, there can be no assurances such expectations will prove to be accurate. Security holders are cautioned that such forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties. Certain factors may cause results to differ materially from those anticipated by the forward-looking statements made in this release. Such factors may include, without limitation, the Company's ability to satisfy the conditions contained in the agreement with the initial purchasers with regard to the offering and other risks and uncertainties discussed and described in (i) the Company's 2016 annual report on Form 10-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") on March 1, 2017, including the risks described in Part 1, Item 1A, "Risk Factors" thereof, and (ii) the other reports filed with the SEC, including the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2017. Many of these risks and uncertainties are beyond the ability of the Company to control, nor can the Company predict, in many cases, all of the risks and uncertainties that could cause its actual results to differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements contained in this release speak only as of the date of this release, and the Company expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to report any updates or revisions to any such statement to reflect any change in the Company's expectations or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based, except as required by law.
